

I was born and raised in Calgary. I have been married for 25 years and have three children. I like to read, travel and sew. My favorite stores are used bookstores where I have found many treasures.