

Monsieur McKenty was born in the West and has lived and taught in Western and Eastern Canada, Asia, Europe and Africa. Previous to his career as an educator he was a medic in the Canadian Army. M. McKenty is an avid runner, cyclist, climber, and snowboarder and he is proud to be a Xaverian. He is very happy to be part of the École Holy Name community.