

Hello Everyone,

Our beautiful school is running a book fair from September 18-21. If anyone is available to volunteer I would greatly appreciate it! The fair will be running both during school hours and with the Meet the Teacher Parent Conferences. The times of the fair are as follows:

- Tuesday September 18th to Thursday September 20th: 9:10-3:10 during school hours
- Thursday September 20th: 4:30-6:30 pm with the Meet the Teacher Parent Conferences.
- Friday September 21st: 9:00-1:00 pm with the Meet the Teacher Parent Conferences.

Also, make sure you look at the BookTube link below! These are book trailers which are trailers for books similar to trailers for movies. There is also a special talk by Jeff Kinney, who is the author of Diary of a wimpy kid!

After the fair ends on Friday will also be a scheduled time for cleaning up the fair on Monday September 24th if anyone is available for that as well! When you arrive at the school, please sign in at the office and indicate that you are volunteering at the Learning Commons with Ms. McGuigan.

If you know the times that you will be able to volunteer, please let me know at adelaide.mcgiugan@cssd.ab.ca by Tuesday September 18th so I can be ready for you to arrive or feel free to drop in to volunteer as well!

Thank you for your continued support for our beautiful school and Learning Commons! Our community is full of dedicated and enthusiastic people and I could not be more grateful for you all!
