

1. Catholicity:

Emphasizes Core Values

Respect for all

Community Involvement (parish, Cranston) inclusive for all - liturgies

Faith focus

Role Model

2. Fosters Effective Relationships:

Fosters positive relationships in the school (e.g. student-student, parent-teacher, teacher student, administration-teacher)

Clear communication (age appropriate, culturally inclusive, patient)

Action oriented to achieving results from concerns that arise

Receptive to feedback

3. Instructional Leadership:

Visible and accessible

Motivates and inspires staff with a positive and collaborative attitude

Participates and supports the community

4. Management of Operations and Resources:

Open communicator (seeks input, listens to ideas)

Understands the importance of current and accessible technology

Capable with respect to fundraising and financial planning

5. Visionary Leadership:

Understands the importance of and emphasizes

-wellness, health and nutrition and an active sports lifestyle

-life skills

-Math skills

-STEM focus and beyond

-financial (lifestyle/money)

Inquiry stance

6. Other:

Promotes anti-bullying

Before and after school program availability

Addresses current events and their impact on the staff/student body

School: South Cranston School

School Council Chairperson: Public Participation Meeting

Date: Octobe 13, 2015 @ Christ the King School

2016-2017

School Administration: Qualities, Attributes and Characteristics

Once completed, please submit directly to Anna Sangregorio, Human Resources @ anna.sangregorio@cssd.ab.ca (phone: 403-500-2566).