

CALGARY CATHOLIC SCHOOL DISTRICT

June 15, 2017

Dear Parents and Residents of the Legacy High School Community,

Over the past two months, dedicated committee members and community residents have been participating in the school naming process for our new high school. This process is now complete. The Calgary Catholic School District would like to thank all the participants on the Legacy High School Naming Committee for their time and dedication throughout the process. We'd also like to thank district parents, students and the parishioners of St. Patrick and St. Albert the Great parishes for their participation and recommendations that were shared through surveys conducted earlier this spring.

We are thrilled to announce the name that was chosen for the new Catholic high school under construction in the community of Legacy: All Saints High School. The rationale for this selection included:

- An inclusive nature and ability to represent saints from different cultural backgrounds, periods in history, genders and age;
- An inspiration to personal faith formation experiences and connections with a variety of saints, in both students and staff;
- A call to all members of the school community to strive towards holiness, by modelling their lives after those who have been recognized as saints.

The school naming committee consisted of Trustee Mary Martin, Superintendent of Instructional Services Andrea Holowka, Superintendent of Area A Schools Mike Ross, Deacon Vivian Pinto (St. Patrick parish), Father Julian Studden and Father Anthoni Poul (St. Albert the Great parish), parent representatives from six school councils, as well as myself, your appointed principal for the new school.

We would like to thank our community and church members who contributed to the naming process. We will continue to engage the school community and work together to provide high quality Catholic education for the future students of All Saints High School.

Finally, a reminder to parents to keep up to date on school developments through the Calgary Catholic School District's website at: www.ccssd.ab.ca/School/FutureSchools/LegacyHighSchool/Pages/default.aspx.

Once again, thank you for your input and support during this exciting journey.

Sincerely,

Mike Bolder
Principal
